

STC SPOTLIGHT

Dr. Scott Kennedy

STC EMS Education Program Director of the Year

Congratulations to Dr. Scott Kennedy, STC Program Manager of Health and Public Services. Dr. Kennedy was anonymously nominated and selected for the EMS Education Program Director of the Year Award. The award was given by the Florida Association of Emergency Medical Services Educators (FAEMSE). This award recognizes those individuals that exemplify excellence in EMS education in the state of Florida and is presented annually. FAEMSE is a member-oriented association organized to provide resources to individuals and organizations that will foster excellence in EMS education and training. The vision of FAEMSE is to be the foremost resource within Florida's EMS educational community.
