

SPOTLIGHT

STC Digital Video Production student's films selected for special screening.

2018 SARASOTA FILM FESTIVAL

YOUTHFEST 2018 - Out of 300 student film entries, worldwide the 2018 Sarasota Film Festival's "YouthFest" the Digital Video Production / Technology classes had two films selected for a special screening on Sunday, April 15th at Hollywood 11 in Downtown Sarasota. 2nd-year DVP student Ryan Ferace wrote and directed "The Marvelous Tale of John Jacobs and the Antagonist." A story about a high school senior on his last day of school trying to complete unfulfilled list of adolescent accomplishments while his longtime school bully gets in his way. The main acting the role of John Jacobs portrayed by classmate Alex Knies along with cinematography by classmate Kyle Guay. To view the film & trailer visit "Ferace Films" on Youtube.

The 20 Hour Film Challenge at the 2018 Sarasota Film Festival

Students Ryan Ferace and Matt Leonardi represent the Digital Video Production Class Team at the Sarasota Opera House for the Sarasota Film Festival's 20 Hour Film Challenge. Participants were given 20 hours to film and 20 hours to edit a short film based on a theme given to them at the opening night premiere screening of the feature film "Class Rank" directed by Eric Stoltz, a well-known actor, and director. Their completed film challenge screening will be on Sunday, April 22nd at Sarasota's Hollywood 11 theaters on Sunday, April 22 at 10:00 AM.

Production Crew

Ryan Ferace, Kyle Guay, Elijah Adams, Samantha Talmadge, Matt Leonardi, Sydney Bilbrey, Mayan Duda, Gianni Alibro, Aidan Johnson

