TO THE TEST TAKER:

A valid government-issued photo identification is required to test. Acceptable primary identifications include a current school year student identification, a permit/driver's license, a passport, or/and military identification. Certain exams may require secondary identifications. No one will be allowed to test without proper identification.

You will be visually monitored at all times while in the test lab.

You are expected to work independently and respect others testing. The Test Center has a multitude of exams and may have others testing during your test session.

IT IS PROHIBITED to:

- Bring any electronic devices, backpacks, personal belongings, watches, certain jewelries, food or drink into the test lab. A small secured locker is available to store your personal items.
- Distract, talk or assist another test taker, during the test session. Talking is not permitted in the test lab during testing.
- Use a calculator; bring notes or books to the test lab, unless it is provided by the Test Administrator.
- Remove scratch paper or any exam materials from the Test Center. You may not leave with any notes or any portion of the exam.
- Tamper with the operation of the computers or attempt to use the computer for any function other than taking the test will be viewed as a security violation.
- Access personal items or leave the test lab during testing.

IF YOU ENGAGE IN ANY OF THESE BEHAVIORS, YOU WILL BE REQUESTED TO LEAVE THE TESTING ROOM AND YOUR TEST WILL BE MARKED NULL AND VOIDED.
